October 4, 2024 \ 8:20 am–1 pm

This is a Hybrid Event

Registration options include:

Live Zoom Webinar

Group viewing at Northwest AHEC (Winston-Salem)

Group viewing at South Piedmont AHEC (Charlotte)

Program Overview

This knowledge-based conference will provide LPNs from different practice settings the information and strategies to maximize their important role on the health care team and enhance their professional practice.

Who Should Participate

This conference is designed for Licensed Practical Nurses, MAs, or any healthcare professionals who are interested in the topics.

As part of our commitment to diversity and inclusion, the Northwest AHEC provides compassionate education and respectful care for all, regardless of socioeconomic status, race, ethnicity, language, nationality, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, geography, disability and age.

Objectives

Upon completion of this program, participants will be able to:

- Describe the LPN's scope of practice.
- Identify a way to practice self-care and mindfulness into daily life.
- Discuss the transition of an LPN into the acute care setting.
- Describe ways to prevent pressure injuries.
- Explain concepts of the management of end of life care for the LPN.

Jointly Provided by Northwest Area Health Education Center (AHEC), a program of Wake Forest University School of Medicine and by South Piedmont AHEC. Both are part of the NC AHEC System.
